Tournament Format and Schedule

The following is the format that will be ran for the RLO Masters

Weekly Group Stage - Double Elimination Bracket

- Each Group (2) consist of 8 teams
- Two teams will proceed from the Upper Final from each group to Weekly Playoffs.
- Two teams will proceed from Lower Final, from each group to Weekly Playoffs.
- All matches will be best of 5.

Weekly Playoffs - Single Elimination Bracket

- All matches will be best of 5, except for the Grand Final which is best of 7.
- Teams will earn circuit points and prize money depending on placement.

Monthly Final - Double Elimination

- Top 8 teams based on Circuit points will participate in a double elimination bracket.
- All matches are best of 5, except for the Grand Final which is best of 7.
- The team which comes from the Winners' Final will be rewarded a +1 map advantage, for the Grand Final.
- 5 total matches will be streamed.

An example of the monthly final event bracket can be found here.

Relegation and Promotion

The following will occur at the completion of a RLO Masters monthly season:

Promotion

- Top two teams from the Open Division will be promoted into the Masters Division for the next monthly season, which is determined by placing in the Monthly Final.

Relegation

- The bottom two teams from the Master Division will be demoted into the Open Division for the next monthly season, which is determined by points earned.
  - If multiple teams have disbanded, the relegation places will be filled with those disbanded teams. If additional places require to be filled, then more teams will be promoted from Open Division to ensure the Master division fields 16 teams.
  - If multiple teams are to be on the same points and facing relegation the following tiebreaker will be used;
    - a. Highest placing throughout the entire season
    - b. Game Win - Loss differential

Roster Regulation

- a. All participating players must be at least 15 years of age to take part in the tournament. (Please see Player Eligibility for more information)
- b. All registered teams must state their full roster including substitutes, either via communication with RLO Admins, or through registering the team on Smash GG where the three (3) players who compete in the first tournament series will be considered the core roster.
- c. Only a team's registered roster is permitted to compete under the respective team during competition. Teams are not permitted to compete with players who are not registered under their roster.
  - ii. Any teams found competing with unregistered players will be removed from the tournament.
- d. No owner or manager of a Team, or if a Team is owned by a corporate entity, no parent, subsidiary or affiliate of such corporate entity, may directly (e.g., ownership) or indirectly (e.g., a contractual arrangement) own or control more than one Team within the Eligibility Area in the Tournament.
  - i. Teams that RL Oceania and Psyonix, in its sole discretion, determines are directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a person or entity that operate sports (including esports), gambling, wagering, bookmaking or betting sites or platforms are not eligible to participate in the Tournament.

Roster Continuity

Trade Window [Masters Division Only]

- a. Teams are permitted to make changes to their roster in a trade window, available after week 4 until the start of the next monthly season. This excludes teams who qualify for the monthly final, who will have the trade window made available to them following the monthly final.
- b. During the trade window, teams must sustain two (2) core players from the previous season in order to continue competing in the Masters Division. If a team removes two or more core members during the trade window, said team must forfeit their Masters Division qualification.
- c. If a team intends on changing their roster during the trade window, they must either communicate their new core roster and any substitutes to RLO Admins, or list their full roster when they register for their first event of the next season, where the three (3) players who participate in their first competitive match will be considered the core roster. Any changes made to the roster following the trade window, will be subject to 'Mid-Season Trading' regulations.
- d. Teams are not permitted to list any players who are already listed on a different team.

Mid-Season Trading.

- a. Teams will incur a 75 point penalty every time they add a new player to their roster during a monthly season.
- b. Teams are permitted to remove one core player and any substitutes from their roster during the monthly season without penalty. If a roster removes two (2) core members in the same monthly season, that team must forfeit all their points and Masters Division qualification.
- c. If an individual player who was already registered under a team, competes for another team during a monthly season, said player will be automatically removed from their original team.
  - i. If a player wishes to compete for a different team, then return to their original team during the same monthly season, this will result in both teams being issued a 75 point penalty.
- d. If a team wishes to make changes to their roster between week 4 and the monthly final, they must forfeit their monthly final qualification.

Promoting Substitute players to the core roster

- a. Promoting Substitute players to Core may only take place between the trade window and week 3 of the current monthly season.
- b. In order for a substitute to be eligible for promotion to the core roster, said substitute must have participated in a minimum of two (2) competition matches during the month.

Masters Division Qualification

- a. Teams competing in the Masters division cannot voluntarily forfeit their Master Division qualification or any points during a monthly season. They will continue to be listed in the Masters Division until they are relegated or found to be in breach of any regulations.
- b. A team may only forfeit their Masters Division qualification during the trade window.

Player Eligibility

- a. The RLO Masters is open to all players currently residing in the Oceanic region. Oceania is defined as: Australia, Fiji, French Polynesia, Indonesia, Kiribati, Marshall Islands, Micronesia, Nauru, New Caledonia, New Zealand, Norfolk Island, Palau, Papua New Guinea, the Philippines, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tonga, Tuvalu, Vanuatu, and Wallis and Futuna.
- b. All participants must be 15 years of age or older to participate in any stage of the RLO Masters.
  - i. RL Oceania reserves the right to ask for confirmation of age from any participating player in the RLO Masters in the form of a government provided ID. Participant details must match the details on the registered Smash GG account.
  - ii. Failure to provide sufficient proof of age or refusal to do so will result in disqualification or removal from the tournament.

Tournament Protocol

- a. To begin playing in the RLO Masters tournament, players must have either been invited via placing inside the Top 16 of RLCS X Fall Split Ranking, or registered via Smash GG.
- b. All teams that have qualified for, or been invited to the Masters Division, will be required to be in the RLO Events Discord server, where all information regarding matches and brackets will be communicated. All Open Division players are required to be in the RLO Main Discord server, where all information regarding matches and brackets will be communicated.
- c. All teams must follow the Match Protocol found below until they have either been eliminated from the competition or have won the final series.

Match Protocol

a. Entering a match

- i. At the commencement of a competition match, details for the corresponding match will be allocated by Smash GG. Teams are to follow instructions by Smash GG or the tournament admins.
- ii. Players may not join their designated side until three Players from each Team have joined the Game.
- iii. During broadcasted matches, teams are not to enter the pitch until an Admin instructs them to do so.

b. Rehosts

- i. Between Games in a Match, Teams may request that the Match be re-hosted on the same server region due to connection issues.

c. Reporting Scores

- i. After a Match is completed, both teams must submit the Match result to Smash GG or a tournament Admin. Taking a screenshot of the results screen or replay of the Match is strongly recommended in case of disputed results.
  1. If a Team disputes a Match claiming a win and submits proof of their claim, the other Team must submit proof of their claim to avoid an automatic forfeit of the Match.
  2. Any Teams or Players found to be submitting false or doctored results will be permanently banned from the tournament and future RL Oceania tournaments.

d. Technical Pauses

- i. If a player suffers any form of network or technical difficulties during a match, their team may take up to a 5 minute pause period following the game in the current series, to either have their player resolve the difficulties, or replace said player by any registered member of the team.
  1. If the team fails to resolve the issue within the 5 minute period, they will be disqualified from the following game. Then, the team has another 5 minute period where they can attempt to fix the issue. If the issue cannot be fixed in this 5 minute period, the team will be disqualified from the series.

e. Match Restarts

- i. If a player falls subject to technical difficulties within the first minute of a game and no goals were scored, the game is to be restarted.
- ii. If a player falls subject to technical difficulties during a game, following either one minute of gameplay or a goal, the game is to continue regardless of the result.

f. Spectators

- i. Only official broadcasters and RLO staff are permitted to spectate competition matches. Substitutes and coaches are not permitted to spectate competition matches at any point in time.

- b. Players must be respectful of other Players, Tournament Administrators, and fans.
- c. In particular, Players may not engage in harassing or disrespectful conduct, use of abusive or offensive language, game sabotage, spamming, social engineering, scamming, or any unlawful activity.
- d. Each Player is expected to play to the best of her or his ability at all times during any match. Any form of unfair play is prohibited by these Rules, and may result in disciplinary action. Examples of unfair play include the following:
  - i. Collusion, match fixing, bribing a referee or match official, or any other action or agreement to intentionally influence (or attempt to influence) the outcome of any competition match.
  - ii. Hacking or otherwise modifying the intended behavior of the Game client.
  - iii. Playing or allowing another Player to play on a Psyonix account registered in another person's name (or soliciting, encouraging, or directing someone else to do so).
  - iv. Using any kind of cheating device, program, or similar cheating method to gain a competitive advantage.
  - v. Intentionally exploiting any game function (e.g., an in-game bug or glitch) in a manner not intended by Psyonix in order to gain a competitive advantage.
  - vi. Using distributed denial of service attacks or similar methods to interfere with another Player's connection to the Game client.
  - vii. Using macro keys or similar methods to automate in-game actions.
  - viii. Intentionally disconnecting from a Match without a legitimate reason for doing so.
  - ix. Interfering with the operation of the tournament, or any platform owned or operated by RL Oceania.

- b. Upon formal notification by RL Oceania and Psyonix, a potential winning player/Team has 60 days from the date of notice to respond and provide any and all requested information or materials to RL Oceania and Psyonix. This information is used to verify eligibility and to determine and apply local tax laws related to the prize distribution.
- i. Failure to return all requested information by the aforementioned deadline can result in the player or Team's disqualification and as such the player or Team will not be entitled to any prizes in connection with the Event. In such cases, no alternate winner will be declared.
  - ii. RL Oceania will determine the payment method for all prizes. All prizes will be paid directly to the winning players, unless other arrangements are made between the winning players, RL Oceania and Psyonix.

Investigations and Compliance

1. If any players find another team's or player's behaviour suspicious or outside of the rules and protocols, it is the player's responsibility to report any issues that RLO Masters organiser's may not be aware of. Screenshots and saved replays are recommended for providing evidence of any illegal behaviour with the event.
2. Players must fully cooperate with the tournament administrator in the investigation of possible violations of these Rules. If a tournament administrator contacts a player to discuss a potential violation, the player must be truthful in the information that he or she provides to the tournament administrator.
